

EYFS Induction Questionnaire 2017-18.

- 1) 88% (of parents) said their child's first few days at school had been very positive (as a result of the induction process)
- 2) 94% (of parents whose child took part in the induction process) said the induction process had been very helpful in preparing their child for starting school
- 3) 79% (of parents who attended the induction meeting) said the meeting had been very informative
- 4) 93% (of parents who attended the induction meeting) said the induction information pack had been very useful
- 5) 81% (of parents whose child took part in the induction process) said their child found the induction sessions very enjoyable
- 6) 81% (of parents who completed the survey) said the length of the induction process was just right
- 8) 93% (of parents who completed the survey) said the individual parent interview had been very useful
- 9) 93% (of parents who completed the survey) said the in school sessions provided by the school were the best part of the induction process

Quotes from the Questionnaire:

- We loved these induction sessions and think that all schools should do them.
- All staff have been fantastic in helping my daughter settle in to primary school. She loves it!
- I feel the induction sessions really help the children (and parents).
- Having lunch at school is very helpful.
- Collingwood is a fantastic school.
- You get a very comforting and welcoming feeling from all that work within the school.
- Nothing is ever too much for anyone.
- The school staff always keep you informed of your child's progress.
- I think it is a brilliant idea that you invite us to a lunchtime.
- My child didn't want to leave his sessions because he so clearly loved them.
- The school is brilliant and very professional, and I wouldn't want my daughter at any other school.