

Communication and Language

The Children will continue to share rhymes, books and stories.

They will respond to what they hear with relevant questions and comments.

The children will use storytelling language and role play to imagine and recreate roles and experiences, and to extend vocabulary.

The Children will be able to explain why it is important to listen when others are speaking.

Physical Development

The children will build upon their control and coordination in both small and large scale movements.

They will handle equipment and tools and effectively, including a pencil for writing.

The children will continue to recognise the importance of keeping healthy.

They will also recognise the changes that happen to their bodies when they are active.

Personal, Social and Emotional Development

The children will continue to become more independent in activities and the use of resources.

They will play cooperatively with others take turns with their peers.

The children will understand that people have different needs, views, cultures and beliefs.

Tale As Old As Time EYFS Topic Web Spring Term 2019

Literacy

The children will become confident in talk for writing and will build upon their storytelling skills.

They will write simple sentences, using their letters and sounds knowledge, which can be read by themselves and others.

They will read a range of familiar and common words and simple sentences independently.

They demonstrate understanding when talking with others about what they have read.

Mathematics

The children will become confident when ordering numbers to 20 or more.

They will be able to talk about addition and subtraction using mathematical vocabulary.

The children will find one more or less from a group of objects.

They will use everyday words to describe position, size, capacity, time and money compare quantities and objects and to solve problems.

Expressive Art and Design

The Children will sing songs and nursery rhymes, make music and dance, and experiment with ways of changing them.

They will use a variety of media to capture experiences and choose the most relevant tools for the task.

They will represent their own ideas, thoughts and feelings through design and technology, art, music, dance, role play and stories.

Expressive Art and Design

The Children will sing songs and nursery rhymes, make music and dance, and experiment with ways of changing them.

They will use a variety of media to capture experiences and choose the most relevant tools for the task.

They will represent their own ideas, thoughts and feelings through design and technology, art, music, dance, role play and stories.