

Fun ways to learn spellings at home

~~Sepling~~
~~Speling~~
~~Spleing~~
~~Speling~~
Spelling

- Make a word search with your words. List them underneath.
- Play charades with your words. When someone has guessed the word, spell it.
- Write a sentence for each word to explain its meaning.
- Make up and write rhymes for each of your words.
- Write your words on cards. Select 6 to put on a bingo grid. Turn cards over one by one. If you have word and can spell it, you can cover it.
- Put your words to a number code eg A=1, B=2
- Arrange your words in alphabetical order.
- Use each of your words in a silly sentence. Underline the word used.
- Sit back to back with a partner and test your words.
- Write your words in different fonts, colours, sizes, bubble writing etc.
- Write out your words, cut into parts that help you to learn them and glue them in.
- Design a board game to play with your words. Write the rules too.
- Illustrate each of your words with a picture.
- Play hangman with a partner using your words.
- Use your finger to write your words on your partners back, can they work out which word it was?
- Paint your words with paint (in the book) or water (outside).
- Cut out letters from a newspaper or magazine to make your spelling words.
- Put all your words in a box of some kind. Play music and pass the box. When the music stops pull out a word and read it. The other person must spell it. Get points for a correct spelling.
- Draw a rainbow. Write all your words in each arc using a different colour for each arc.
- Get someone to test you on your words. Add each correct word to a colourful paper chain.
- On small pieces of paper, write all of the letters of the alphabet. Spread them out on the floor. One person reads a word aloud while the other spells it out by stepping on the letters in the correct order.
- Decide which word you are going to spell. Throw a ball with a partner. Every time you throw it, say the next letter of the word until you have spelt it out. Play again.
- Look up your words in a dictionary (in a book or online) and write down a simple definition.
- Write a short story using all of your words.
- Draw up a look cover write check grid and practise your words.
- Draw a large spider (8 legs, head and body) Number each part up to 10. Write your words on cards and number them 1-10 on the back. Now your partner reads one out. If you can spell it, colour the part with that number on.
- Draw a large square filling your page. Write your words in it, around the edge. Keep going until you get to the middle - like a spiral.
- Write out the whole alphabet on a long strip of paper. Spell out each word by driving a toy car to each letter in the right order! You could draw lines for the route if you wish.
- Sprinkle talcum powder/flour/rice/sand or similar in a baking tray. Use your finger to spell out your words.